

Creekside Gardens

Wedding and Bridal Shower Facility

Your Wedding:

It is more than a day – so much more. From engagement to vows to glorious honeymoon, Creekside Gardens makes every moment unforgettable. Whether you travel across town or around the world, discover everything in one place; superb settings, and meticulous, personalized support. A perfect experience for you and your guests with only delightful surprises.

To have “your day” at Creekside Gardens means something special.

Small and intimate or large and lavish, your event must be as unique as you are. We'll cater your event in the grandest style and help you plan the ceremony, reception, bridesmaid's luncheon, rehearsal dinner.... In fact, we'll take care of so many details all you will have to do is show up! Exquisite surroundings, fabulous food and elegant service define the Creekside Garden experience. Nestled on the hillside overlooking the heart of the Applegate Valley, Creekside Gardens boasts a breathtaking sunset view. With two ponds and a creek flowing alongside the 5 acre estate, the setting for your special event will truly be one to remember.

Personal customer service and a commitment to affordability has always been the goal and policy of the owners and staff of Creekside Gardens. Our packages have been designed to accommodate your budget. You will receive personal help and planning down to littlest detail. The most important day of your life should not be the most stressful day of your life.

Special events enjoyed at Creekside Gardens may include weddings, wedding receptions, bridal showers, vow renewals, anniversaries, fund-raising events, reunions, as well as many others. On site parking is available. With seating for 200+ people, we are certain to provide comfortable accommodations for you and your guests.

We invite you to visit our website, telephone, fax or e-mail us to find out just how charming your next special event can be!
